

Dr. Redlener is president and co-founder, along with singer-songwriter, Paul Simon of the Children's Health Fund, a philanthropic initiative created to develop health care programs in some of the nation's most medically underserved urban and rural communities.

Join us on October 28 as Dr. Redlener talks about Katrina's effects on children and his organization's work in that area.

The presentation is free & open to the public.

October 28 @ 3:00 PM
RM: 103 Weiskotten Hall
Upstate Medical University

Disaster Preparedness: Why it is a Public Health Issue

Irwin Redlener, MD
Director, National Center for Disaster Preparedness
Clinical Professor of Population and Family Health, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University
Clinical Professor of Pediatrics, College of Physicians & Surgeons, Columbia University

Sponsored by the Department of Public Health & Preventive Medicine @ Upstate Medical University
For more information email Cindy Paikin: paikinc@upstate.edu