

Spicy Thai Condoms: A Sojourn Through the Front Lines of Public Health

David R. Smith, MD
President & Professor of Pediatrics
Upstate Medical University

April 14, 2010 @ 4:00 PM • 2231 Weiskotten Hall • Irving Ave.

Sponsored by the Office of CME at SUNY Upstate Medical University

Objectives

At the conclusion of this talk, participants should be able to discuss:

- Leadership decision-making at a public health departmental level
- The relevant interface of identifying public health challenges or crises and the contributions of epidemiology, science, discovery and communication of risk or interventions
- The role of advocacy and social marketing in the context of public health challenges
- The interplay between department of public health and other governmental and non-governmental entities
- The investigative role of public health
- The policy and legislative opportunities to effect change in public health

Who Should Attend

This activity is designed to be of interest to public health professionals, physicians, nurses, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, students, and other professionals interested in public health, community health, and disease prevention.

Speaker Disclosure Information: Dr. Smith has disclosed no relationships with commercial entities and will not discuss the off label use of pharmaceuticals.

Accreditation Statement

SUNY Upstate Medical University is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The SUNY Upstate Medical University designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Registration is not required

.....
For more information:
Phone: 315-464-1520
E-mail: paikinc@upstate.edu