

Upstate Visiting Scholar Request Form

Person making request:

Name: _____ Title: _____

Campus Address: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

E-mail: _____

Contact person to facilitate visit (if different from above):

Name: _____ Title: _____

Campus Address: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

E-mail: _____

Please indicate date and time preferred for the visiting lecture (Note: this will require a two-hour block)

Date: _____ Time: _____

Is there an alternate date and time available?

Date: _____ Time: _____

Lecture choices: Due to travel and faculty availability please select three lectures. If they are ordered by preference, we will make every attempt to match you with your first lecture choice. To learn more about our faculty and their research projects, please visit www.upstate.edu/grad

SUNY Upstate Visiting Lecturers 2009-2010

David C. Amberg, PhD
Professor of Biochemistry &
Molecular Biology
Role of Actin Cytoskeleton In Cellular Aging During Oxidative Stress

Jeffrey Amack, PhD,
Cell & Developmental Biology
Heart Development in the Zebrafish Embryo

Robert Barlow, PhD,
Ophthalmology
How Do We See?

Steven Goodman, PhD,
Dean, College of Graduate Studies
Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
Understanding Sickle Cell Severity

Barry Knox, PhD, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
Molecular Basis of Genetic Blinding Diseases

Stewart Loh, PhD,
Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
Protein Folding: From Mechanisms to Design

Jennifer Moffat, PhD,
Microbiology & Immunology
Of Mice and Men: A Tale of Two Viruses

Steven Youngentob, PhD,
Neuroscience & Physiology
Fetal Ethanol Experience and Chemosensory Plasticity: Its Contribution to Adolescent Alcohol Abuse

Dan Tso, PhD, Neurosurgery
Seeing Is Believing: Visualizing Visual Processing

The program is free and designed to spark interest in the biomedical sciences and to further awareness of opportunities at SUNY Upstate.

Return this form by mail, fax or e-mail to:
Sandi Tillotson, Graduate Recruitment Coordinator
College of Graduate Studies
SUNY Upstate Medical University
750 East Adams Street
Syracuse, NY 13210
Phone: 315-464-7655
Fax: 315-464-4544
E-mail: tillotss@upstate.edu