

1939

William Kron, of Sanford, NC, died February 19, 2004. Dr. Kron had a private obstetrics and gynecology practice in Roslyn Heights and Syosset, NY, for 30 years before he retired in 1979. After graduating from medical school, Dr. Kron entered the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant, serving in Europe and Asia. He is survived by his son, William; his daughter, Marilyn Dent; three grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

1953

John D. Mould, of Rochester, NY, died August 20, 2004. Dr. Mould served in the U.S. Army Air Force in World War II in the Philippines and Australia. He practiced family medicine in Geneseo, NY, from 1954 until 1977. He then joined the Kodak Medical Department until his retirement in 1988. He is survived by his wife, Marilyn; his daughters, Mary Kahn and Margaret Hanna; his son, Jack; several grandchildren; and nieces and nephews.

1957

Elbert W. Phillips, of Henderson, NY, died August 21, 2004. An active member of the Nuclear Emergency Team, Dr. Phillips was chief of radiology for the U.S. Army Hospital at West Point from 1963 until he retired from the Army with the rank of major in 1965. Dr. Phillips designed and equipped a new diagnostic radiology office for Century X-Ray Associates in 1973. He was associate professor radiology at the University of Buffalo Medical School for 25 years. In 1985, he became chief of diagnostic technology at Buffalo General Hospital. He led a consortium of seven hospitals and their radiology groups to purchase the first 1.5 Tesla super-conducting MRI in Buffalo. Dr. Phillips work was published in medical journals and presented at conferences. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Jane; his daughters, Linda Joy Prather, Judy Ann, and Sandra Lynn Kleftis; his sons, Clifford, David and Brent; 10 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

1969

Louis H. Smith, of Costa Mesa, CA, died in 2003.

Residents

Abraham Injeian, of Laguna Niguel, CA, died July 4, 2004.