

SUNY Upstate Medical University Beyond the Numbers

SUNY Upstate Medical University and its 715-bed University Hospital combine to be Central New York's only academic medical center. Upstate Medical University acquired Community General Hospital in 2011 and renamed it Upstate University Hospital at Community Campus on July 7, 2011. With nearly 9,000 employees, Upstate is also Onondaga county's largest employer. University Hospital is a tertiary-care referral hospital and the only Level One Trauma Center in Central New York. The Hospital's coverage area of 17 counties is the broadest of the region's hospitals.

University Hospital offers many specialty medical services unique to Central New York including:

- CNY's only NYS Designated Stroke Center
- Upstate Cancer Center
- Golisano Children's Hospital
- Clark Burn Center
- Upstate Heart and Vascular Center
- Upstate Breast Care Center
- Upstate Designated AIDS Care Center
- Upstate New York Poison Center
- Joslin Diabetes Center
- Epilepsy Center (Level 4)
- CNY Gamma Knife Center
- Hyperbaric Center
- Children's Surgery Center
- Only Pediatric ICU and Emergency Department
- New York State Designated SAFE site
