

Nursing Rotation

Nursing Rotation:	An Over View of the Poison Center
Location:	Upstate New York Poison Center 250 Harrison Street Suite 200
Faculty:	Michele Caliva RN CSPI Specialist in Poison Information
Goals:	At the conclusion of this rotation the nursing students should demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• An increased understanding of the scope and function of the Poison Center• A greater awareness of the RN's role in the field of toxicology• Increased knowledge of the RN's role in the "Approach to a poisoned patient"
Overview:	Tour of the Center Introduction of staff Completion of Pre-Survey Presentation - An Overview of the Poison Center Observation of morning follow-up calls Review of cases Presentation: "The Nursing Approach to the Poisoned Patient" Review of Poison Prevention Education Materials Preview of Poison Prevention Educational videos Presentation by health educator Observation of incoming calls Q and A session Completion of exit survey