

IPE Update

From the Office of Interprofessional Education

Greetings,

It's been a busy three months since I started with Upstate, but the Team and I are excited to provide you with a quarterly update on our collective progress. I feel very fortunate to work alongside so many people who have applied such enthusiasm, energy, and creativity toward a common cause: to help improve patient outcomes and promote the health of populations.

"To support teamwork, collaboration and communication skills in Upstate's educational programs."

- Upstate Medical University IPE Mission Statement

Right now is an exciting time as we collectively work to realize our vision of One University and create truly transformational Education. Please take a couple minutes to read about the people and movement helping to make this happen at Upstate.

I look forward to learning from, with, and about you.

Best regards,
Darren Carboni, MBA
Director of Interprofessional Education

Team Formation

- Upstate IPE Team Champions solicited and established (Led by Dr.'s Ann Botash, Bambi Carkey, Carol Recker-Hughes, and Lynn Cleary)
- Core IPE Team (Over 30 members) formed consisting of faculty and student representatives from our four colleges and staff
- Director of Interprofessional Education position developed, screened, and filled by January 2017

8 Strategic IPE Objectives

1. Engage stakeholders (learners, patients, community and others) in IPE
2. Exceed IPE program accreditation requirements (needs)
3. Build scholarship
4. Promote curriculum integration through IPE
5. Evaluate IPE outcomes
6. Partner with others to foster efficiency
7. Foster interprofessional relationships
8. Advance use of simulation in IPE

Strategic Plan Development

- Crafted Upstate University Mission Statement specifically for Interprofessional Education, the foundation for all future planning
- Developed IPE Strategic Plan and identified eight key objectives

(See "8 Strategic IPE Objectives" at left)

Implementation Plan Development

- Developed IPE Implementation Plan (flows from IPE Strategic Plan) with key goals drafted. Three-point approach includes the development of teams under the Core IPE Team with specific goals, activities, and measures:

Curriculum Committee (Chair: Ann Botash)

Awareness Committee (Chair: Bambi Carkey)

Development (Events and Faculty Development) Committee
(Chair: Carol Recker-Hughes)

Infrastructure Development

- Updated IPE skills and interests information for Core IPE Team members and advocates
- Developed Roles and Responsibilities guidelines for IPE Core Team members
- Re-structured IPE Blackboard page to serve as a repository of IPE knowledge, plans and meeting minutes
- Developed IPE Event project plan template
- Developed and collected surveys to use post-IPE learning events to measure outcomes of IPE related interventions
- Established externally facing IPE specific webpage on Upstate.edu (<http://www.upstate.edu/academic-affairs/interprofessional.php>)

Engaging (Upstate) Friends of IPE

- Provided introductory check in email to Summer 2016 IPE retreat team
- Director of Interprofessional Education introduced at College of Health Professions' Dean's Advisory Council meeting, presented status update at General Assembly, scheduled to present at College of Nursing meeting and working to present at upcoming College of Medicine meeting
- Established ongoing working relationships between Office of IPE and other Centers and programs (See "IPE Strategic Partners" on this page)
- Director of Interprofessional Education has met specifically to learn and solicit input from over 40 individuals and teams (to date) across Upstate Medical University since January including:
