

A sincere congratulations on your invitation to interview! Choosing a medical school is extremely difficult and we plan to provide multiple opportunities to help you make an informed decision. We are eager for you to learn more about the Upstate campus, culture and community. In addition to your interviews, your day will also include a required “Upstate Update” session where we will share more about our program and provide important admission information. Most importantly, we are excited to meet you!

This 1-Hour Session from Noon-1 p.m. Eastern Time will include:

- An introduction from me and others on our admissions team.
- An “Upstate Update.”
- Next steps and expectations in the admissions process.
- Information about the student experience at Upstate.
- A chance to meet some of our current students.
