

CLASS AND LABORATORY

Our comprehensive paramedic program produces sought-after, well-rounded paramedics. We accredit this to the diverse clinical and field experiences we offer each and every student.

FIELD INTERNSHIPS

We have field internship sites with emergency medical service agencies throughout New York State. Dedicated field internship time will be spent honing in on the advanced skills and procedures used every day. Students learn, practice and perform advanced skills alongside dedicated preceptors such as:

- Medication Administration
- Advanced Airway Management
- Electrical Therapy
- EKG Recognition
- Venous Access
- Infusions

CLINICAL INTERNSHIPS

Students work alongside nurses and physicians observing and performing advanced procedures within the controlled environment of our hospital and partnering healthcare facilities. Dedicated clinical rotations help students refine and enhance their assessment skills in departments such as:

- Geriatric Emergency Department
- Pediatric Emergency Department
- Specialty Care Units
- Medical Toxicology
- Labor & Delivery

PARAMEDIC PROGRAM

This 15-month program culminates with a three month capstone internship.

- Rolling enrollment opens in January
- Maximum enrollment is 30 students
- Bunk-In Programs are available

GAIL WEINSTEIN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Through the generosity of the Weinstein and Johnston families, with the assistance of the Central New York Community Foundation, scholarships have been established to honor the memory of former Upstate paramedic instructor, Gail Weinstein.

The Central New York Community Foundation awards four scholarships for students to complete paramedic education.

DEB DUETHORN SCHOLARSHIP

The Deb Duethorn Memorial Scholarship Fund is a yearly $1,000 award administered by the Central New York Community Foundation to assist persons pursuing education in the fields that Deb herself was committed to. Applicants seeking EMS education are qualified to apply. Application can be found on the CNYEMS webpage.

THE UPSTATE ADVANTAGE

Upstate Medical University gives students an immediate educational advantage by having access to an abundance of opportunities through the University. We offer the most comprehensive and diverse education in Central New York. Paramedic students enjoy:

- Nationally Recognized Emergency Medicine Faculty
- Gross Anatomy Cadaver Lab
- Advanced Simulation Equipment
- Operation-based Training
- Renowned Medical Library
- An abundance of clinical education resources from our community partners

With Upstate Medical University, our students have the opportunity to intern with CNY's most advanced specialty departments, such as:

- Adult and Pediatric Level-I Trauma Center
- Upstate Golisano Children's Hospital
- Comprehensive Stroke Center
- NYS Poison Control Center
- Clark Burn Center

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER

Paramedics are the highest level pre-hospital healthcare providers with more responsibility, expertise, and autonomy. Upstate Medical University's Paramedic Program is an intense and rewarding opportunity to take your emergency medical services career to the highest level.

Utilizing the National Emergency Medicine Services Education Standards, our curriculum is challenging yet rewarding and prepares you to be a competent entry-level provider. Commitment, dedication, and active participation are required. We encourage you to contact the EMS Programs Office to schedule an advisement session.
