

Academic Affairs: Examples of What We Do

- Support academic program development by faculty/deans
- Serve as Upstate's academic liaison to SUNY
- Coordinate university accreditation through the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- Coordinate assessment of student learning and program effectiveness, and provide consultation
- Support compliance with external regulations and policies regarding education

You Should Contact Academic Affairs When...

- You want to develop a new academic program
- You have a question, concern, or suggestion about academic policy or procedure, credit hour assignments, etc.
- You would like help with assessment of student performance, or program evaluation
- You're not sure about whom to contact for any academic question
