

Michelle Endresz

From: Heidi Chapman on behalf of Amy Tucker
Sent: Tuesday, November 8, 2022 2:14 PM
To: Amy Tucker
Cc: Darcy J. DiBiase
Subject: CMO Blast: Primary Care Providers - Education and Engagement Opportunities

Sent on behalf of Darcy DiBiase, Primary Care Liaison, Project Manager, Ambulatory Medicine...

Please mark your calendars and share these upcoming opportunities for physician education and engagement.

WEDNESDAY: PRIMARY CARE TASK FORCE EDUCATION SERIES

12:15 pm, Wednesday, November 9: HeeRak Kang, MD, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Management of Chronic Lumbosacral Pain <https://upstate.webex.com/upstate/j.php?MTID=m59f7d318670f26f82ece3fcc747ed88d>

Primary Care Task Force Education sessions are held virtually on the second Wednesday of the month, from 12:15-1 pm. Future presentations include:

- December 14: Rachel Hopkins, MD, Transgender Care in the Primary Care Setting
- January 11: Robert Swan, MD, Ophthalmology in the Primary Care Setting, Part 2
- February 8: Robert Carhart, MD, Keeping Heart Failure Patients Out of the ED
- March 8: Savio John, MD, Caring for Patients with Cirrhosis

All past presentations (managing seizures, gout, tinnitus, new developments in monitoring type 2 diabetes, etc.) can be accessed from the Primary Care Task Force web page here: <https://www.upstate.edu/primary-care/task-force.php>

FRIDAY: COFFEE WITH THE CMO

Coffee with the CMO will be held Friday, November 11, from 7:30 am – 8:30 am, at Upstate University Hospital (room 8405A UH East Tower). All Upstate physicians, APP's and clinical staff are invited to gather with colleagues for an update from Chief Medical Officer, Amy Tucker, MD. An open Q&A to follow, coffee and wrapped breakfast treats available! RSVP requested to Darcy DiBiase, dibiased@upstate.edu

Please let me know if questions or if you have suggestions for future engagement opportunities.