Subject: CMO BLAST: Physician Well-Being Update - Dr. Tait Shanafelt Returns to Upstate!!
Importance: High

Hi, everyone:

Upstate University Hospital is delighted to welcome back Dr. Tait Shanafelt, Chief Wellness Officer at Stanford Medicine and Director of WellMD and WellPhD Center, to host a virtual Healthcare Transformation Grand Rounds presentation on Thursday, July 13, from noon – 1:30 pm.

Dr. Shanafelt is a luminary in the field of clinician well-being. He visited Upstate in 2019 prior to the pandemic to share his insights and will return to lead a virtual fireside chat and interactive Q&A focusing on “Organizational Efforts to Cultivate Healthcare Professional Well-Being: Before and After the COVID19 Pandemic.”

Learning objective include:

- Discuss the current state of professional satisfaction and burnout among physicians in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Recognize the drivers of physician burnout.
- Recognize individual and organizational approaches to promote clinical well-being.

CME credits are being offered and advance registration is required: <https://bit.ly/3P2EIHy>.

Participants will have the opportunity to submit a question to Dr. Shanafelt at the time of registration, and also during the event. Once registered, participants will receive a confirmation email with a unique zoom link to use to access the event.

Please see the attached flyer for more information and feel free to share with anyone with interest.

Best,

Amy
