

Grand Rounds Announcement

Public Health & Preventive Medicine Grand Rounds
Thursday, October 17, 2013
12:15 – 1:15 PM

Location: Weiskotten Hall, Room 2231
766 Irving Ave.
Syracuse, NY

HIV Prevention Behaviors among South African Youth

Brooke A. Levandowski, PhD, MPA
Research Assistant Professor
Department of Family Medicine
SUNY Upstate Medical University

Objectives

After the presentation, participants will be able to describe:

- At least two social or cultural factors that influence health decisions for sub-Saharan youth
- How the proximate determinants framework can be used to analyze health decision making
- How South African youth compare to American youth in terms of risky sexual behaviors related to HIV infection

Who Should Attend?

Public Health Professionals, Physicians, Nurses, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners, Students, anyone interested in public health, community health, and prevention.

Disclosure:

The speaker and planners for this activity have disclosed they have no financial relationships with commercial entities and will not discuss the off label use of pharmaceuticals.

The presentations are free and open to the public. Grand Rounds registration is not required. For information contact: Cindy Paikin paikinc@upstate.edu The talk is also provided free via webinar! To register, go to: <https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/560303585>

Check out our Master of Public Health (MPH) Degree Program and the Certificate of Advanced Study in Public Health at: www.upstate.edu/cnymph Applications accepted September 1, 2013 – April 15, 2014. Apply early as enrollment is limited.