

AFFILIATING SCHOOL/COLLEGE OF NURSING ROLE TRANSITION SKILLS EXCLUSION LIST

Each student nurse participating in a role transition at Upstate University Hospital must be provided with a Role Transition Skills Checklist, which outlines what skills CAN be performed under the supervision of the preceptor. The following clinical skills MAY NOT be performed by the student nurse as designated by Upstate University Health System.

Student Nurse may not:

1. Initiate or regulate the following intravenous treatments:
 - Vasoactive medications
 - Lipids
 - Hyperalimentation
 - Chemotherapy
 - Epidurals
 - Any experimental drugs
 - Narcotics for PCA pumps
 - Any blood products
2. Conduct cardiac outputs
3. Access controlled medications or witness the access of controlled medications
4. Carry the narcotics keys or count narcotics
5. Access dialysis devices and/or implantable ports
6. Manipulate peritoneal dialysis
7. Tape, extubate, or manipulate endotracheal tubes
8. Manipulate respiratory ventilator equipment
9. Manipulate auto-infusion devices
10. Manipulate dialysis devices
11. Take verbal or telephone orders
12. Perform procedural or conscious sedation
13. Perform any skill(s), not listed, that the unit manager, trainer, or preceptor feels will not be in the best interest of the patient.