

PGY2 Ambulatory Care Learning Experiences

Longitudinal Experiences (Required): (typically over 52 weeks, unless otherwise indicated)

- Pharmacy Research
- Medical Resident Education (MRE), Teaching and Mentoring

Rotational Learning Experiences (Required): (typically 4 weeks in duration unless otherwise indicated or determined by resident, preceptor and RPD)

- Ambulatory Care Orientation: 1-4 weeks (length depends on incoming experience including operational training, program content review, pharmacy practice model and pharmaceutical care plan review)
- Comprehensive Medication Management (CMM) and Diabetes (DM) Initial Training Experience: 8 weeks
- Anticoagulation Clinic 4-week Orientation Rotation: 4 weeks
- Neurology: 4 weeks
- Family Medicine: 4 weeks
- Inclusive Health Services (IHS): 4 weeks
- Rheumatology, Pulmonology, Sub-Specialty Clinics: 4 weeks
- Center for International Health Services (CIH): 4 weeks
- Independent management for both anticoagulation and diabetes clinics: resident spends 4 weeks in each

Elective Learning Experiences:

- Advanced Endocrine: 4 weeks Advanced / Independent
- Cystic Fibrosis: 4 weeks