

4/23/2020 – Update re: Prometric & USMLE Announcement

Dear Students,

We are happy to report that USMLE has released the following announcement via their twitter account:

“Prometric does consider USMLE an essential examination & will resume testing on May 1. Continue to follow us on social media and <http://USMLE.org> for updates. You can find the Prometric announcement regarding essential testing here <https://bit.ly/35adnVL>”
